

Opiates... What's A Church to do?

A workshop designed for people, who want their churches to make a difference.

Sat. April 28th, 2018

11 am – 3 pm

Town Square Mall

3315 N. Ridge Rd., Ashtabula, OH. (U.S. Rte. 20)

In the Community Room

Please use the Mall entrance immediately to the left of J.C. Penny

This event is FREE and Lunch will be provided.

Featured Speaker: Rev. F. Lee McDermott

“We need to change the conversation.... from one that condemns, to a conversation that offers hope; from one that punishes, to a conversation that holds people accountable with compassion and grace...”

Local Panel will share how churches can respond to this crisis in their communities.

To register for this Free Event: log onto Eventbrite

Search “Ashtabula and Opiates” and Register.

Presented by: The Opiate Prophetic Witness Team of EOA/WRA of the United Church of Christ in Ohio, in Partnership with the Ashtabula County Prevention Coalition.

For More Info Please visit:

<http://eoawraucc.org/opiate-crisis-prophetic-witness-team/>

Contact: Rev. John J. Werner (440) 213-4745

